Message from Our Minister Rev. Pam Philips

Who would have imagined, who could have imagined, this past year?

During coffee hour after the Sunday service, someone shared that last December they had been in a group talking about the year ahead—2020. People made all kinds of predictions, mostly optimistic. But no one came close to imagining what would actually happen. Why would they?

Looking back over the past year, I'm filled with wonder at all that we've experienced. It's hard to imagine how much our understanding of the world has changed in one year. Do you remember when you first heard about the coronavirus? How you thought it might impact your life? At first it was something far away—in China—and then closer to home—in Washington state and Italy, where I have many family members. But soon it came home to us in Blacksburg, first with the stay-at-home order, and then with the realization of what that would mean for us. I think especially of not being able to be together—to celebrate holidays, to mark important milestones, but especially to grieve our losses. That has been hard.

And looking back over the past year, I'm filled with awe at how we've been able to adapt and survive, and sometimes even thrive, in this new world. Last year, could you imagine doing what you've done?

Looking ahead to the new year, we have reason for optimism. We know that we are more resilient, more adaptable, more creative than we might have imagined. The vaccines are on their way. Surely, we can take whatever 2021 throws our way. And yet, I've learned never to say, "It cannot get worse than this", because it seems to invite another curve ball.

In the month ahead, as we explore what it means to be people of imagination, our challenge will be to imagine the lives we want to live, the world we want to create—no matter what 2021 sends our way. At UUC, we'll continue to connect in the ways we've learned to over the past year—with Sunday Morning Worship, Monday Meet-ups, Mid-Week Gatherings—and add to the mix some adult faith development offerings (see page 6 for more info). We'll also have the opportunity to welcome UUs from other Virginia congregations and the Heritage Universalist Unitarian Congregation in Cincinnati. If you haven't yet, now may be the time to join a Soul Matters Covenant Group. You can also help make more connections by filling out our "Let's Make Connections" survey. (See page 3 for more info.)

We'll continue to imagine new ways to live into our mission—inspiring spiritual and ethical growth, creating compassionate community, and transforming our community and the world through courageous love. In the words of Henry David Thoreau, "This world is but a canvas to our imagination." What might we create together?

With love and hope,

Rev. Pam

Message from Our Board

Wayne Neu, President

Welcome to 2021! May it be better than 2020. (I'll give an amen to that!)

As you read this, you will have seen the roll out of two (maybe even three) different COVID vaccines. Unfortunately, we have a long way to go until it's safe to go back to our old ways. Currently the 7-day average of new COVID-19 cases in Montgomery has climbed to a new peak bested only by the peak we saw at the end of August when the students came back. What is most concerning, however, is the extreme spike we are seeing in new hospitalizations. It has risen more than 5-fold since then, and our hospitals are having trouble handling all the patients. Many people are out of work as small businesses, especially restaurants, are closing or cutting way back on their workforce. I sure hope there is a light at the end of this tunnel, because it's getting awfully dark in here!

Also, as I write this, Congress and our President are at odds over the terms of a major economic relief bill. Likely, by the time you read this, we will all be waiting for another stimulus check that will be way too small for those who really need it. It's likely not to do enough for the struggling small businesses, either. For those who are fortunate enough to count themselves among those who really don't need it, consider sending the money where it is most needed. Good choices are our own Community Assistance Fund administered by Rev. Pam to help those in need, the Blacksburg Interfaith Food Pantry, Montgomery County Emergency Assistance Program (MCEAP), NRCA Emergency Assistance Food Pantries, Radford-Fairlawn Daily Bread, Plenty!, and so many more local agencies trying to help people in our area. Also, please try to support your favorite small businesses and local restaurants through take-out or delivery orders, so we don't lose them.

In UUC administrative matters, believe it or not, it is time to start thinking about what our budget for the 2021-2022 fiscal year will look like. (Anybody have a crystal ball?) The Board began the discussion at our December meeting. We envision that we will be back to in-person services for a major part of the year, but we also anticipate the need to continue broadcasting them online for those who choose not to attend in person and for the new folks who are joining us but are too far away to attend. How to budget for an unknown amount of utilization of our facilities, however, is anyone's guess. How many people will have had enough of screen time and can't wait to be back, and how many will be leery of meeting in person is unknown. Can we hold services outside before people are willing to gather indoors?

Actually, we anticipate having hybrid in-person and online services for some time to come. We will need to budget for the equipment and services needed to make that happen, but we don't really know yet what that will be. Between the Board and the Finance Committee, we need to finalize a budget by our February meeting, so it can go to the Stewardship Committee who will kick-off our stewardship drive in March. Yes, it is that time of year again already. Before you know it, we will be voting on a budget and a slate of new Board members at the annual meeting that we don't yet know how will be run.

One thing I know for sure is that this congregation will make it through whatever we need to do to get through this together. We are strong together. Decisions will be made. Actions will be taken. We WILL get through this tunnel! It's only a matter of time – and wearing of masks and washing our hands and social distancing and ....

Upcoming Events

Preparing to Talk and to Listen about Anti-Racism

The Anti-racism Discussion Group is helping to plan our January 17 Sunday service in honor of the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. This will be a time not only to learn but to share. To that end, we want people to feel prepared and ask that you spend a little time thinking about your experiences with racism. What would you like others to know that you could share with a small group?

Everyone is encouraged to attend this special service, whether you think you have something to share or not, because we know that bearing witness, listening to others' stories, has power, too.

Let's Make Connections

The Connections Committee wants to help members and friends of UUC increase their connections with each other. Please fill out this survey to let us know about hobbies, games, activities, and other interests that you have and might share with others in the congregation. We'll do our best to connect those who have shared interests. This is not a commitment to lead a group but an opportunity to connect with others.

SOUL MATTERS Covenant Groups

We're holding a mid-year sign up for those who would like to participate in a Soul Matters Covenant Group. These groups meet monthly on Zoom to explore the worship themes and to form deeper relationships with others in the congregation. You can find more information about the program and access packets with spiritual exercises, questions, and a plethora of resources which participants use (packets are password protected—the password is getsoul).

If enough people sign up, we will form a new group. Otherwise, we'll try to find people a spot in one of the existing groups.

Sign up here or contact Marilyn DuPont or Rev. Pam if you have questions or concerns.

To Our House

In this strange and stressful pandemic time, To Our House is adapting and still providing overnight shelter and food for homeless guests this winter. UUC will be providing food for guests staying at Glade Church January 20 – 29, and your help will be needed! Details coming soon. Contact Kimberley Homer for more info.

January Food Pantry Donations

A sincere thank you to our very generous UUC congregants who participated in the Children's RE, congregation-wide, Reverse Advent Calendar activity during December. The food donations to the Blacksburg Interfaith Food Pantry were greatly appreciated by the IFP clients.

The Community Service Team will resume the monthly food collections during January. Since we are now in the winter season and will be having freezing temperatures, there is a concern about donated foods freezing, especially foods in glass jars. Thus, the suggested foods for this month will be dry foods. Please consider donating boxes of mac & cheese, cereal, or boxes of Jello or instant pudding. The collection bins are located near the main entrance to UUC and near the accessible entrance in the back. Thank you.

UU World, the magazine of the Unitarian Universalist Association, celebrates liberal religion and the people it inspires. Meet extraordinary individuals, see how UU communities put their values into action, and explore the ideas and traditions that ground them.

UUC members receive print copies of UU World quarterly, but the online version is available free to all at uuworld.org. You can also sign up to receive the free email newsletter via this link.

Round the Grounds

There is interesting history regarding UUC's grounds. A case in point is the presence of the Peace Pole located at the entrance to the Memorial Garden. Backing up a bit, UUC contributed funds to 4 UU congregations in New Orleans after Hurricane Katrina. They were grateful for the caring and financial assistance. When, in April 2007, VA Tech suffered the shooting deaths of 32 students, the New Orleans UU churches, (First UU Church of New Orleans, North Shore UU Society of Louisiana, Community UU Church, and the Metzger-Price Fund), reached out to us and provided funds to be used however we wished to help with the healing process. We chose to erect a Peace Pole on our property in memory of those who died in the events of April 19, 2007. UUC members Bonnie Moreno designed the pole and its multi-dimensional base; master craftsman, Dick Luke, constructed the base using timbers saved when we built our addition in 2008. The message on the pole, "May Peace Prevail Upon Earth", is written in the 8 languages spoken by the students who died – Korean, English, Spanish, Hebrew, Chinese, French, Hindi, and Farsi. It's fitting that the Peace Pole is at the entrance to the Memorial Garden, a place of peace and memories.

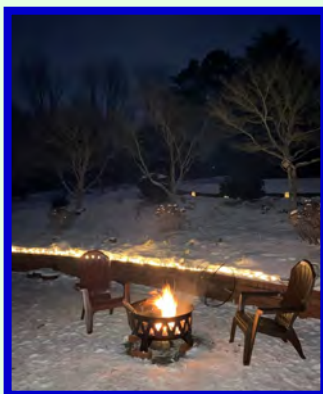

The Labyrinth Lighting Celebration/Walk had magic in the many lights and luminaries that graced the grounds. Applause to those who braved the weather to partake in the event. In addition to the UUC crowd, some of our neighbors also showed up to take in the lights, fire and hot cider. The labyrinth lighting was designed by George Lally with the assistance of Patrick Feucht, Kris Hite, and Bob Stimson. Lighting in the crescent garden and the luminaries was done by Denise Martin and Susan Baker. Executing events requires the behind-the-scenes efforts of "invisible workers" – Barbara Taylor, Jim & Carol Kern, Dan Brown, Greg & Lisa Evanylo, Pam Phillips & Jamie McReynolds, Amanda Haynes, Joe Sapienza, Jennifer Bailey, and Kim & Patrick Feucht. Thanks to those who loaned hundreds of feet of extension cords! Thank you to all!!
