

We are a religion free of dogma and guided by shared values rather than a creed.

We support conscientious personal beliefs based on reason and experience.

We emphasize the value of every person and the interdependent web of all existence.

We give life to our values,
demonstrating compassion,
respect, and justice.

We work together to make the world a better place to pass along to our children.